GIANTS MAY LOSE THEIR BALL PARK

NEW YORK, May 10.—Alderman John J. Mulcahy is preparing a bill which, if it passes the board of aldermen, will force the New York baseball club to seek other quarters than the Polo Grounds.

The bill will open a street through the center of the Polo Grounds, and will enhance the value of much of the surrounding property, and for that reason Alderman Mulcahy's bill is receiving strong support of the property owners near the Polo Grounds.

In recent years several threats have been made to open the street, but the attempts died in their infancy, and nothing came of them. In the present instance the city surveyor has prepared a report, while Alderman Mulcahy has had an independent and separate survey made of the property. He has been besieged with petitions from property owners on the street, which should cut through the old Madison Field and Polo Grounds according to the official city map, but which has been shut off through political influence.

The property owners claim that on account of the street being cut off abruptly at the bridge, the property has been greatly devalued in value, and for this reason they want the street opened. Alderman Mulcahy said yesterday: "I have recently been requested by a number of property owners in the neighborhood of the Polo Grounds to have the street opened. I have investigated their complaints and find them well founded. The opening of the street would make the property much more valuable than at present, and I am satisfied that the street for business purposes should be opened. I am a lover of all kinds of sports, especially baseball, and while I do not want to work any hardships on the New York baseball club, I believe that the property rights of my constituents should be safeguarded, and with this object in view I have looked the matter up, and have had a private survey made. I am now preparing the bill, which I feel certain will be passed, and will make every effort to push it to a successful conclusion."
